Pharaohs

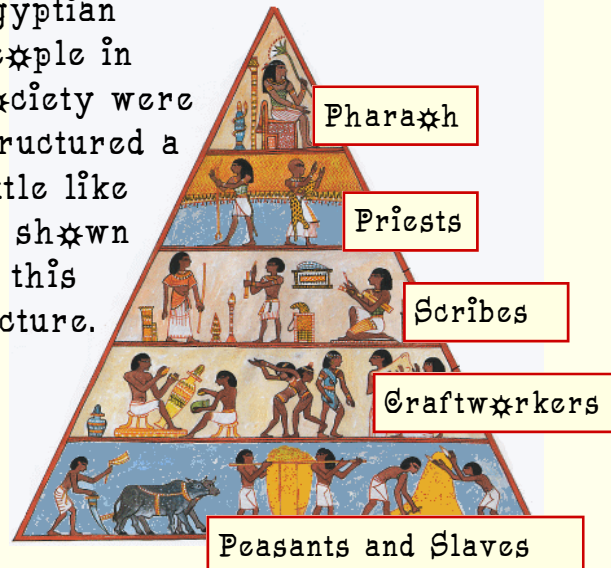

Rulers of Ancient Egypt were called pharaohs. The word 'pharaoh' means great house. The pharaoh was the most powerful person in Egypt and some people considered him a god.

Ramses II ruled Egypt for over 60 years. In that time he fathered 156 children! He was a brave soldier and a great builder.

Society

Egyptian people in society were structured a little like is shown in this picture.

The River Nile was very important to the Egyptians. It provided water for drinking and for crops.

The Great Sphinx at Giza guards the Great Pyramids. It has the body of a lion and the face of a human.

Hieroglyphs

Ancient Egyptians used a system of picture writing called hieroglyphics. Each hieroglyph represented an object or letter. There were about 700 different hieroglyphs.

The Pyramids were built using huge stones. Each stone weighed as much as two and a half elephants! The finished pyramids had a white coating to protect the stones underneath.
