

A is for adverbs

Adverbs describe
how something
is being done.

Some examples

happily

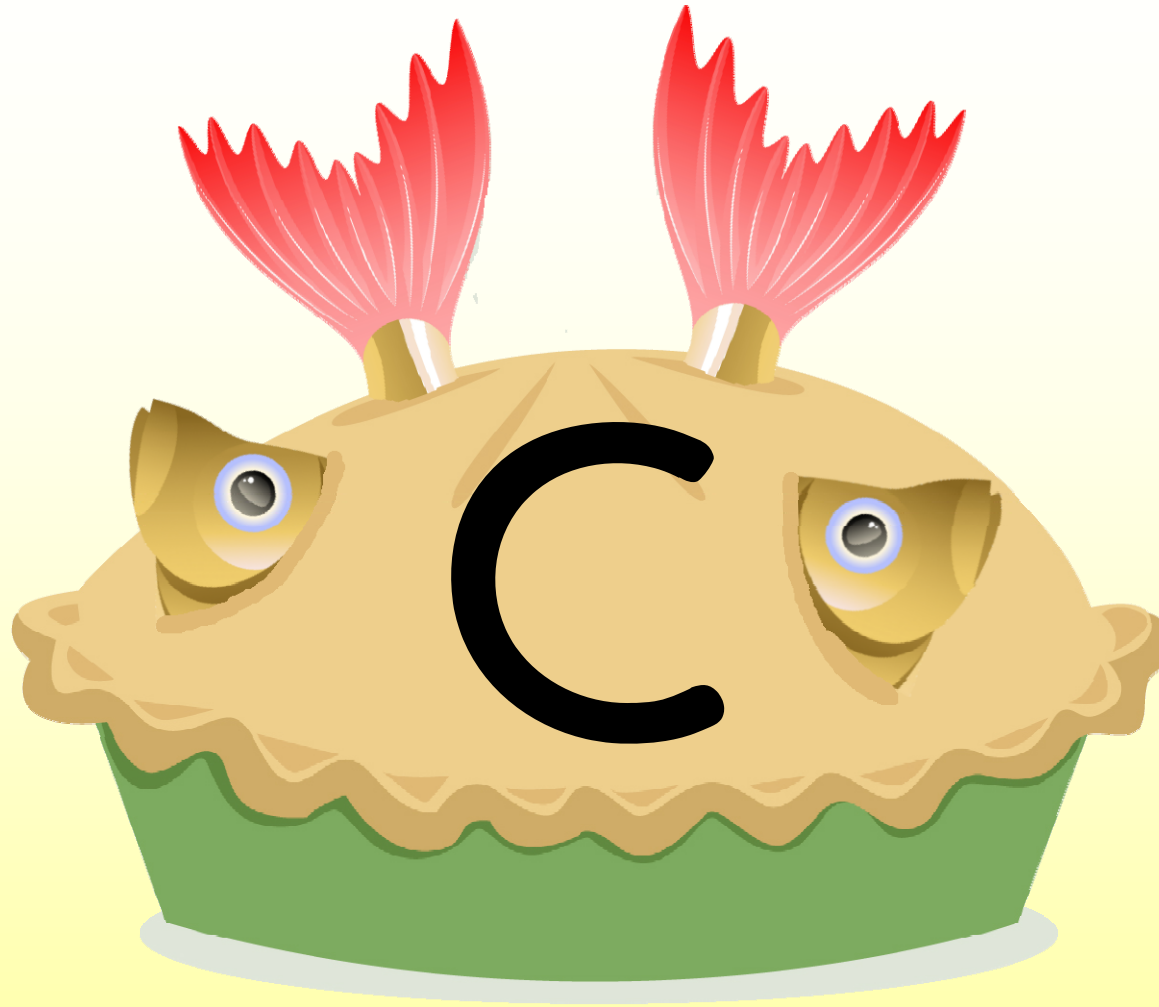

slowly

merrily

silently

quickly

noisily

is for connectives

Use connectives
to give a sense of time or show a consequence.

Some examples
eventually

however
despite

although
while

besides

A is for adjectives

These are describing words
that can be put together.

Some examples

scared

happy

nervous

exhausted

nice and sweet

silly

R is for relative
pronouns
These words relate to the noun.

Examples

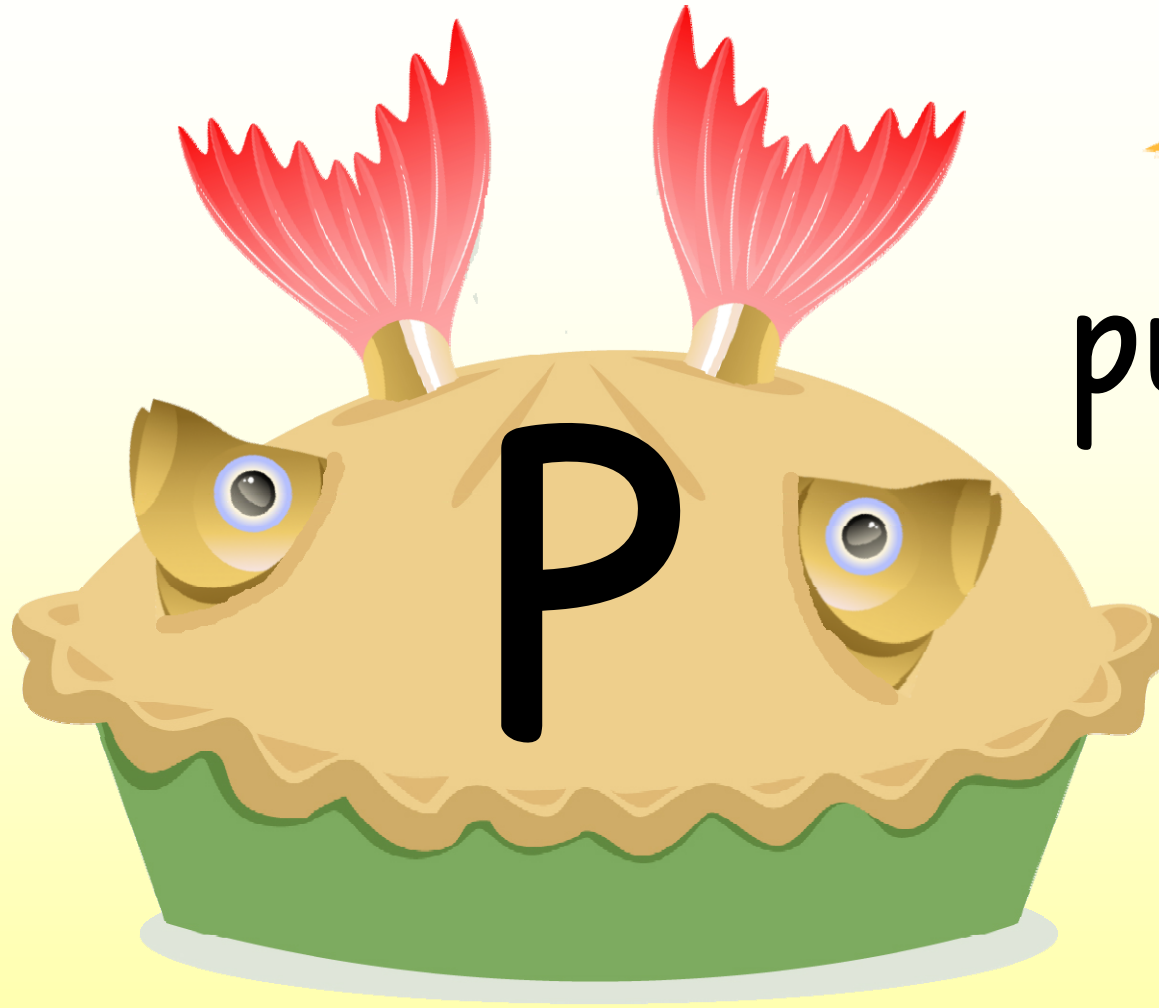

Who goes with people

Which
That

go with objects

 P is for punctuation

Use a range of punctuation in your writing.

“ ” ; , ... () ' ? . !

P is for prepositions

These tell us
where something
is.

Some examples
under

behind

above

inside

below

on top of

I is for 'ing' words

Use 'ing' words to describe what
your characters
are doing.

Some examples

creeping

slurping

scowling

shouting

giggling

thinking

E is for
'ed' words

Use 'ed' words to
describe what
your characters
are feeling.

Some examples

amazed

worried

surprised

shocked

frightened