

I can read words with prefixes and suffixes and know what they mean in a text.

I can read out loud using punctuation to help the listener understand.

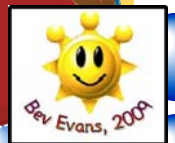

I can read fluently, using different voices and tones to give expression.

I can retell a story and use details to make it clear.

I can find information in a text and discuss it by referring to the text.

I can talk about the theme of a story.

I can discuss the reasons
for events in a story.

I can understand how certain words
and phrases make texts funny,
spooky or create moods.

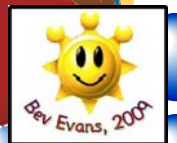

I can compare the layout,
characters, settings and
themes of different books.

I can predict what a book might be
about by skim reading, the title, contents and illustrations.

I can find and talk about the vocabulary and writer's knowledge the author has used.

I can make reading choices based on what I have read before.

