

I can use different methods to work out words I don't know e.g. phonics, reading on...

I can blend phonemes in words like train and read in my reading.

I can blend sounds in words
with consonants e.g. cry,
brown, scratch...

I can find answers to simple questions in my text.

I can guess what might happen in a story by what has already happened.

I can compare settings
and events to my own experiences.

I can compare stories and say why they are similar and different.

I can show that I understand the way information texts are organised and use this to help me when I am reading.

I can describe the main plot in a story.

I can choose my favourite book from a selection and talk about it.
