

Welcome to the World of Wilma and Wilbur

Stealing Wow words is not a crime!
It can help you improve your writing.

You can find Wow words in all sorts of places. You just have to look and listen!

Try stealing some cool adjectives. An adjective describes a noun or pronoun.

Adjectives are really great. They make your sentences more interesting.

Have a good look around for some verbs. Verbs are action words.

Instead of using simple verbs in your sentence, like 'walked' or 'said', steal better ones, like 'dawdled' and 'exclaimed'.

Keep an eye out for good adverbs. Adverbs add information and meaning to verbs and adjectives.

Stealing great adjectives, verbs and adverbs will really enhance your writing!
